Suzanne draws from several decades of experience working with multitudes of clients helping them move through what has been lost to find faith and hope to move on. As a psychotherapist, coach and author of her recent book Lost & Restored, she inspires and motivates you to find a personal connection with God that will transform these losses into something beautiful.

“Suzanne has a wonderful presentation that is well thought through, insightful, and practical. Her empathy with her audience is tempered by her seasoned experiences that help others relate to what she has to say. Her commitment to Christian principles helps to ground those who are truly searching for answers to their life’s dilemmas.”
